

Jim Ebert

I have lived in Geauga County for 28 years. One of my favorite things about Geauga County is the small-town feel, the friendliness of its people and the beautiful country landscape. I decided to join the Geauga Hunger Task Force because I strongly believe if you are blessed in life then we have an obligation to help those in our community that may not be so fortunate.